BOOKS

BELONGING TO THE

Bristol Library Society :

TO WHICH ARE PREFIXED, THE RULES AND REGULATIONS.

BRISTOL :

PRINTED BY J. CHILCOTT, WINE STREET.

MDCCCXXXIV.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

I.—OF THE MEMBERS.

1.—The Society consists of an indefinite number of Annual Subscribers, who are Proprietors; of Members for Life by virtue of their donations; and of Members by virtue of their office.

2.—The Mayor, Sheriffs, and Chamberlain for the time being; and the Master, Wardens, and Treasurer of the Society of Merchants for the time being, are Members by virtue of their office.

3.—Persons may become Members for life by presenting Fifteen Guineas or upwards, or books to the value of Twenty Pounds.

4.—Each person admitted into the Society by a new share shall pay Ten Guineas for the purchase, and an annual subscription of One Guinea and a Half.

5.—Members may transfer or bequeath their shares, but in all cases subject to Rule 7.

6.—Each Member admitted by transfer shall pay One Guinea to the Society on admission.

7.—No person shall be admitted a Member of the Society until he shall have been proposed at one meeting of the Committee and approved of by a majority of persons present at the next meeting; nor until he shall have consented to be governed by the rules of the Society by signing his name in the subscription book.

8.—If any Member shall let out for hire any book belonging to the Society, he shall, on proof thereof, be no longer considered as a Member.

9.—A Member lending a book belonging to the Society to a non-subscriber, shall forfeit One Guinea.

10.—A Member putting a book belonging to the Society into the hands of his pupil, shall forfeit double the value of the book.

11.—No person keeping a lodging-house, inn, tavern, coffee-house, or any place of public entertainment; and no person keeping a circulating library, or letting out books for hire, shall be eligible as a Member of this Society.

12.—If any Member shall, after his admission, assume the trade or business of letting out books for hire, or of keeping a lodging-house, &c. he shall be considered as no longer a Member, but shall be at liberty to transfer his share.

13.—Every Member shall have the privilege of introducing at any time, by a written notification, one stranger, not residing within ten miles of Bristol, to read in the Library until the next meeting of the Committee; who are empowered either to disallow such introduction, or extend it for any period not exceeding three months; the Member introducing to be responsible for any loss or damage to the books, which may be occasioned by the person so introduced.

II.—OF THE ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION.

14.—The Annual Subscription is due on the 25th of March, for the year which follows that day.

15.—If a Member neglect to make his annual payment for ten months after the time appointed, he shall not be permitted to have the use of the Library, or exercise any of the privileges of a Member, until all arrears of his subscription be paid.

16.—The Committee are empowered to sell the share of any Member whose subscription is five years in arrear.

17.—If a rule for increasing the subscription money be hereafter made, any Member who shall within a month state in writing directed to the Committee that he wishes in consequence to withdraw from the Society, shall receive from the Treasurer such a sum of money as the Librarian shall declare to have been the current price of a transfer three months before the adoption of such rule.

III.—OF THE GENERAL MEETING.

18.—A General Meeting of the Society is holden on the Monday next preceding Lady-day in each year, in order to elect a President, a Vice-President, and a Treasurer; to fill up vacancies in the Committee; and to adopt or reject any proposal for new rules, or for any alteration in the old rules.

19.—No existing rule shall be altered, nor shall any new rule be established, unless notice of the same be given in the summons to the General Meeting; nor without the concurrence of two-thirds of the Members present at such meeting.

20.—Every Member who has entered the Society three months, and has paid his subscription, is entitled to vote at all meetings of the Society.

21.—Notice of every General Meeting, whether annual or extraordinary, shall be given ten days previously to such meeting in two of the Bristol newspapers, and by sending notice to every Member having a right to vote, whose place of residence shall be known to the Librarian. No objection shall be made to the validity of any General Meeting on account of any error in giving the notices.

22.—Any twelve Members have power to call an extraordinary General Meeting, giving ten days' notice, and expressing the business to be proposed.

IV.—OF THE PRESIDENT, VICE-PRESIDENT, TREASURER, AND COMMITTEE.

23.—The President is Chairman of the Committee, and at all meetings of the Society, when present; in his absence the Vice-President is Chairman.

24.—The Treasurer shall keep a regular account of all monies received and paid for the use of the Society, subject to the inspection of the Committee.

25.—The Committee consists of the President, the Vice-President, the Treasurer, and eighteen other Members. Beside whom, the Mayor and the Master of the Merchants' Hall for the time being (if Subscribers) are Members of the Committee by virtue of their office.

26.—The Committee is chosen by the General Meeting; the President, Vice-President, and Treasurer, by open vote; the other Members by ballot.

27.—Six of the eighteen Members of the Committee retire annually on the principle of rotation, according to seniority. In all instances three of the retiring Members may be re-elected immediately. Such vacancies as occur by death or resignation to be considered part of the number required by this rule.

28.—The Committee, five of whom are a quorum, meet every second Tuesday, and sometimes hold extraordinary meetings. Their business is to consider of the books proposed and to order such as the majority shall approve; and in general to transact the ordinary business of the Society, and report the state thereof to the next Annual Meeting. If on any question there be an equal division, the President, or in his absence the Vice-President, shall have a casting vote; if both are absent, the question on an equal division shall be determined in the negative.

29.—The Committee may order duplicates of such books as they think proper, and dispose of such as appear to be useless.

30.—If at any election of a Committee improper means shall appear to have been employed, such election shall be void, and the Society shall be summoned to make a new election.

V.—OF THE LIBRARIAN AND SUB-LIBRARIAN.

31.—The Librarian and Sub-Librarian shall be annually elected by a majority of Subscribers, who have votes, present at a General Meeting, and shall have such salaries and allowances as that General Meeting shall direct.

32.—The Librarian shall compile, continue, and take care of the catalogues and other books of office, under the direction of the Committee.

33.—The Librarian shall preserve the books and other property of the Society in good condition, and arrange them from time to time in such order as the Committee shall direct; and shall report to the Committee any loss, or damage, or disorder which may happen. During the hours of his attendance, he shall deliver and receive the books, and register their delivery and return.

34.—The Librarian shall attend as above, and otherwise transact the business of the Library in his own person, and not depute either the Sub-Librarian or any other person without leave of the Committee, or of the President, Vice-President, or Treasurer, until the next meeting of the Committee.

35.—The Librarian and Sub-Librarian shall be in the Library precisely at the appointed hour, each on his particular day, and shall not leave it till the time be expired.

36.—The Librarian and Sub-Librarian shall by no means allow pupils or children, unless introduced by a Subscriber, to come into the Library, or to make use of any book, &c. belonging to it, without permission from the Committee.

37.—The Sub-Librarian shall be assistant to the Librarian, and attend to his directions. He shall make a transcript of the local catalogue. He shall attend in his own person, and not depute another in his place without the consent of the Committee, or of the President, or Vice-President, or Treasurer, until the next meeting of the Committee. During the hours of his attendance he shall deliver and receive the books, and register their delivery and return; and he shall report to the Librarian or to the Committee any loss, or damage, or disorder which may happen.

VI.—OF THE PERUSAL AND CARE OF THE BOOKS.

38.—Any Member may have three books out of the Library at the same time, provided one of them has been in possession of the Society more than a year.

39.—Each person taking a book out of the Library shall enter his name in the register ; and whoever sends for a book, shall send a written order^f signed with his name and dated ; and the Librarian shall not permit any book to be taken out of the Library contrary to this rule.

40.—On the inside of the cover of each book a ticket shall be fixed, expressing how long it may be kept, and the fine for exceeding that time.

41.—Every book shall be returned into the Library when its time is expired ; and shall by no means be transferred to another Subscriber without such return.

42.—If more than one Member apply for the same book at the same time, the preference shall be determined by lot. The names of such as apply for a book which is engaged, shall be set down in a book kept for that purpose, that they may have it in succession when returned.

43.—The Committee, as often as appears necessary, hold an examination of the Library, for the purpose of ascertaining what books, &c. are lost, damaged, or the like.

44.—A discretionary power is vested in the Committee of retaining in the Library such scarce or valuable books, as they shall think not proper to be circulated.

45.—No book which cannot be replaced by purchase, shall be permitted to be removed from the Library ; but every Member who may wish to take out any other book, although restrained from general circulation, may do so, on depositing with the Librarian such sum as the Committee shall affix as a sufficient guarantee against damage or loss.

46.—All books when first brought into the Library shall remain there a month before they circulate ; within which time they shall be ranged in proper places and entered in the catalogues : and no book shall be permitted to circulate till it is so ranged and entered.

47.—If any Member lose or damage a book, he shall make such compensation as the Committee shall direct : if the book lost or damaged be part of a set, he shall take the remainder and purchase a new set for the Library.

48.—Every book when sent out of the Library or returned into it, shall be wrapped up in paper.

March 23, 1829. “Resolved that The Librarian or Sub-Librarian shall attend from Eleven in the morning until Four in the afternoon of every day, except Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday ; and from Seven in the evening until Nine on every day of such attendance, except Saturdays.”

[March 18, 1833. “Agreed that the Library be kept open during the ensuing year, from Eleven o’clock until Five every day, except Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday ; instead of from Eleven till Four, and Seven till Nine.”]

The Books marked thus † are withheld from general circulation ; those marked thus * are donations that have been made to the Society.

Besides the Books contained in the following Catalogue, there is in the same Library a collection of about 2,000 volumes belonging to the City.
